

Dr. med. Michael Quante

Affiliation: Medizinische Klinik II, Klinikum rechts der Isar TU München
Address: Ismaninger Strasse 22, 81675 München
Date of Birth: 2. February 1978, Münster, Germany

Education

1999 - 2001 School of Medicine, Westfälische Wilhelms Universität Münster
2001 - 2004 School of Medicine, Albert-Ludwigs Universität Freiburg
2005 MD, School of Medicine, Heinrich Heine Universität, Düsseldorf
2005 Dissertation: Differential transcriptional regulation of human telomerase in a cellular model of esophageal squamous carcinogenesis
Prof. Dr. Dr. H.E. Blum, Department of Medicine, University of Freiburg

Career:

2006 - 2008 Clinical Fellow, Medizinische Klinik II, Universität Bonn
2008 - 2010 Postdoctoral Fellow, Department of Digestive and Liver Disease, Columbia University Medical Center, New York
2010 - 2011 Associate Research Scientist, Columbia University Medical Center
2011 -. to date Clinical Fellow and Principal Investigator, II. Medizinische Klinik, Technische Universität München

Research Interests:

- Pathogenesis of Barrett's Esophagus
- Role of Cytokines and Inflammation in Obesity
- Stem cells and cancer stem cells in carcinogenesis
- Gastrointestinal tissue stem cells

Selected Memberships:

- American Gastroenterology Association
- American Association of Cancer Research

Selected Awards:

- DDW 2004 GSK Foreign Travel Award, Orlando, FL
- Ludwig-Heilmeyer-Award 2005 for an excellent dissertation, University of Freiburg
- Postdoctoral Fellowship Grant, Deutsche Krebshilfe, Mildred Scheel Stiftung, 2007
- AACR Scholar in Training Award 2010, Washington, DC.